

GUSBOURNE PLC

Relations with shareholders

The Chief Executive and Non-Executive Chairman are the Company's principle contact for investors, the press and other interested parties.

Communication with Shareholders is facilitated by the issue of full and interim reports, press releases and other corporate information, all of which is available on the Company's website.

The Annual General Meeting of the Company provides an opportunity for shareholders to question and raise issues with the Board.